SUNRISE CHILDREN'S VILLAGES

VISITOR AGREEMENT

Welcome to Sunrise Children's Village.

For privacy reasons, and as part of our commitment to child safety, we ask all visitors to respect certain regulations when entering our Village. Completion of this form is therefore necessary prior to visiting Sunrise Children's Village.

Please be advised of the following visiting conditions, as set out below:

- 1- To comply with our child safety policy, you are requested to provide a valid passport, or photo ID before entering our Village, and a copy of this will be held on file with this duly completed form.
- 2- Visitors are asked not to enter private buildings, including kitchen, dormitories or private living areas, unless prior arrangement has been made with Sunrise Management.
- 3- Visitors will be accompanied by a staff member at all times.
- 4- Visitors are requested not to pick up any children while visiting the Village.
- 5- For privacy reasons, we request that you do not film or photograph children, unless you are the registered sponsor of a child, or have previously received permission from Sunrise Management.
